

Lifeline gets two new vehicles

Lifeline has recently acquired two new vehicles in the aid of further enhancing their presence and support to the community.

Lifeline has recently acquired two new vehicles in the aid of further enhancing their presence and support to the community.

The two vehicles are fully equipped with all the latest medical technology and are capable of handling any situation that might arise.